Subject : Occupational Health and Safety Training Initiative -
Business Process Guide

Dear Employment Ontario delivery partners:

As a follow up to the Assistant Deputy Minister's announcement of the Occupational Health and Safety Training Initiative on July 3, 2020, the ministry has updated the business process guide to reflect the direct website links to the training course landing pages.

In addition, we are updating the questions and answers to reflect new questions we have received about the initiative. This update will be posted on the Employment Ontario Partners Gateway in the coming days.

We thank you for your interest in this initiative and for your patience as we address questions and concerns.

We also thank you again for your ongoing commitment to supporting job seekers, employers, and your local communities.

Sincerely,
