Memorandum

To: EO Network
From: David Cronin, Director
Program Delivery and Support Branch
Date: July 2, 2021
Subject: Occupational Health and Safety Training Initiative

The Ministry of Labour, Training, and Skills Development launched the Occupational Health and Safety Training Initiative in July 2020 to provide free online occupational health and safety training to jobseekers.

To assess the results of this initiative, the ministry has developed a survey to be administered to all Employment Ontario service providers to collect feedback on the Occupational Health and Safety Training Initiative.

The surveys will be administered early to mid-June 2021. Your participation is voluntary, but we would greatly appreciate you taking the time to complete the short survey to provide feedback on your experiences with the initiative. An email will be sent to you containing the survey link.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment in supporting jobseekers, employers, and your local communities.

If you have any questions, please contact your local office for support.

Thank you,

David Cronin
Director
