

Particulars of Notice of Contravention and Review Decision

S. 49(1) Private Career Colleges Act, 2005

Tuesday June 29, 2010

These particulars are posted following the issuance of an administrative penalty for which a review was requested. Penalties may be reviewed upon request within 15 days of receipt of a Notice of Contravention. The review decision is made considering not only the information originally available at the time the Notice of Contravention was issued, but also any new information not previously available that may have been supplied in support of the request for a review. On review, an administrative penalty may be upheld, rescinded or reduced. A review decision is final.

Original service date: April 07, 2010

Carl Dutrisac Milson and Shane Patrick Carr
A Touch of Love Inc. operating as A Touch of Love and/or A Touch of Love – Toronto’s
Day Spaw for Pets
2276 Queen Street East
Toronto, ON M4E 1G6

Description:	Original Amount:	Review Decision:
PCCA, s. 38 (10) Inquiry and Examination - obstruction Superintendent’s designates attended at A Touch of Love Inc. 2276 Queen Street East, Toronto, ON, at approximately 11:40 a.m. on April 6, 2010. While outside the school’s premises, 2276 Queen Street East, Toronto, ON, Carl Dutrisac Milson obstructed the duties of the Superintendent’s designates (designates) by refusing to answer questions or permit entry into the building. When Mr. Milson stated that he would not be speaking to the designates without his lawyer, the designate informed Mr. Milson that he could contact his lawyer. However, he then made no effort to do so. Mr. Milson further obstructed the designates by interfering with them while they were questioning another individual present at the premises. When the designates asked Tony a question, Carl Dutrisac Milson interrupted and told Tony that he was not to answer any questions. Shane Patrick Carr obstructed the designates by forcibly slamming the door of A Touch of Love Inc.’s premises in front of the designates such that if one of the designates had been too close to the door, injury could have occurred. Shane Patrick Carr told the	$1,000 one time	Penalty of $1,000 was upheld. The balance of evidence available indicates that A Touch of Love Inc. did obstruct the duties of the Superintendent’s designates while they were conducting and examination/inquiry.

Superintendent's designates to "arrest me" when one of the designates asked him if he was refusing to answer questions. Both Carl Dutrisac Milson and Shane Patrick Carr directed numerous obscenities towards the designates. After the door had been slammed shut the first time, Shane Patrick Carr opened up the door again, used profanities and advised the designates that they were trespassing. Subsequent to attending at the school's premises on April 6, 2010, Carl Dutrisac Milson left a voicemail message the same day for one of the designates who had attended at the school earlier that day. Carl Dutrisac Milson stated the following in his voicemail message to the designate: "You are trespassed from any form of any of my properties. You are not to come near me. I will go to the courts and I will put a peace bond against you for the actions you and your colleague had did against me. And I assure you I will be following up on this. You will not have a job left when I'm finished with you, do you understand. You do not attack people the way that you attack us..."

Total: $1,000