

Particulars of Notice of Contravention and Review Decision

S. 49(1) Private Career Colleges Act, 2005 (“Act”)

Monday November 29, 2010

These particulars are posted following the issuance of an administrative penalty for which a review was requested. Penalties may be reviewed upon request within 15 days of receipt of a Notice of Contravention. The review decision is made considering not only the information originally available at the time the Notice of Contravention was issued, but also any new information not previously available that may have been supplied in support of the request for a review. On review, an administrative penalty may be upheld, rescinded or reduced. A review decision is final.

Description:	Original Amount:	Review Decision:
PCCA, 2005, s. 8 (1) Prohibition against providing unapproved vocational programs. On September 2, 2010 a Designate of the Superintendent reviewed the website http://artistryschool.com/ belonging to the business Studio Artistry which is a division of Cambridge, the corporation owning a registered PCC in Ontario. On the “Course Calendar” page of the website all three of the component courses included in the Professional Makeup Artistry Program, which is vocational, are listed as having summer start dates (June 2010) and fall start dates (September 2010) On September 2, 2010 a designate of the Superintendent called Studio Artistry at 416-900-3873 and spoke to a person who identified herself as Jackie Artiste and indicated she was the registration coordinator. Jackie confirmed that classes in this program had been offered throughout the summer and that there were limited spaces	$1,000 per day	Penalty of $1,000 per day is upheld for September 3, 2010. The balance of evidence available indicates that the Cambridge Institute of Science and Technology Inc. was providing unapproved vocational programs. The Cambridge Institute of Science and Technology Inc. came into compliance on September 3, 2010.

available in the fall. She also confirmed methods of payment and confirmed to the designate that he could register the following day. Based on this evidence it is clear that Cambridge is providing an unapproved vocational program in contravention of section 8 of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005.
