Attention: Dr. Ziad Alhihi, Director of CompuCampus Inc.

Restraining Order

This is a Restraining Order issued under the authority of section 46 of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005. As the Superintendent of Private Career Colleges, I hereby order CompuCampus Inc. o/a CompuCampus College (CompuCampus) to stop contravening s.15(3) of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005 (Act), and otherwise to comply with the Act and Regulations.

A designate of the Superintendent visited 171 Queens Avenue, London, Ontario to conduct a new facility inspection of CompuCampus (Registration No. 105857). This inspection was conducted as the final step in the process before the Superintendent considers approval for the proposed change in campus location from 427 Exeter Road, London, Ontario.

The Superintendent's designate found the proposed campus already open and operating without the necessary approval, and offering vocational programs without being approved at this location contrary to s. 15(3) of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005.

Notice of Condition Added to Registrations

Pursuant to s. 15(2) of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005, I also hereby add the following condition to CompuCampus' registrations (Registrations Nos. 102198 and 105857):

At the registrant's expense, CompuCampus must secure the services of a pre-approved third party (or parties), acceptable to the Superintendent, who:

- Meets the qualifications set out in Fact Sheet #3 – Third-Party Program Assessment (see <http://www.edu.gov.on.ca/eng/general/factsheet3.pdf>);
- Conducts a physical inspection of all campuses;
- Interviews a sample of students (as determined by the third party);
- Reviews a sample of student files (as determined by the third party);
- Observes instruction of all approved programs; and
- Submits reports to the Superintendent setting out their observations and conclusions, including an opinion as to whether or not the registrant is operating and delivering vocational programs in compliance with the Act and Regulations.

The registrant must cooperate fully with the third party in all examinations and inquiries. The reports are to cover separate time periods as determined by the third party, and be delivered to the Superintendent on April 30, 2010 and July 30, 2010.

In order to ensure that the third party is acceptable to the Superintendent, CompuCampus is to submit in writing the name(s), contact information, proposed contract and qualifications of the third party (or parties) it proposes to retain, to the Superintendent not later than March 31, 2010.

Order to Submit Legacy Programs for Renewal

Pursuant to s. 14(2) of O.Reg. 415/06, CompuCampus must fully submit the following programs to the Superintendent for renewal by April 23, 2010, failing which the approval(s) will be revoked on April 26, 2010:

- Database Administration Diploma
- Quality Control Diploma
