

Particulars of Notice of Contravention and Review Decision
S. 49(1) Private Career Colleges Act, 2005

Tuesday February 23, 2010

These particulars are posted following the issuance of an administrative penalty for which a review was requested. Penalties may be reviewed upon request within 15 days of receipt of a Notice of Contravention. The review decision is made considering not only the information originally available at the time the Notice of Contravention was issued, but also any new information not previously available that may have been supplied in support of the request for a review. On review, an administrative penalty may be upheld, rescinded or reduced. A review decision is final.

Description:	Original Amount:	Review Decision:
Act. s. 11 – Restrictions on advertising and soliciting Global Driver Training operated an active website http://www.globaldrivertraining.com/ which advertised an AZ license program, a DZ license program and a forklifting program. The site states that that this can be achieved within 6 weeks. In an email dated March 5, 2009, the Ministry informed Global Driver Training in response to a pre-screening for a program entitled Heavy Equipment Operator, that they needed to register both their Professional Truck Driver Training Program and the Heavy Equipment Operator program. The Heavy Equipment Operator program cost $4,895.00 and was 156 hours in length over a period of 6 weeks.	$1,000 per day	Upheld - The penalty accumulated on January 14, 2009 only.

A phone call was made by ministry staff to Global Driver Training on January 12, 2010 inquiring about the AZ program. A male answered the phone and identified the number as Global Driver Training. He stated the price for the AZ program to be $2,750.00 with $250.00 for the Z program. The program would take anywhere from 4 – 6 weeks. A further phone call by ministry staff to Global Driver Training on January 13, 2010 confirmed that the AZ program was $3,000.00 and 120 hours in length.
Total:		$1,000
