NOTICE OF CONTRAVENTION

This letter is to inform you, Loren Yaremchuk, as President of the corporation Global TESOL College Corp., operating as Global TESOL College ("Global TESOL"), that on January 5, 2010, it was determined that Global TESOL contravened the following sections of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005 and/or of regulations made under the Act:

- Act, s. 11 — Restrictions on advertising and soliciting ($1,000)

For a summary of the contravention see attached Schedule A.

As per section 51 of Ontario Regulation 415/06 of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005 Global TESOL is subject to a penalty in the total amount of $1,000 per day. It is important to note that the penalty is levied daily. The total penalty amount of Contravention Type A is calculated by multiplying the penalty amount indicated by the number of successive days that the contravention continues.

For example: following 5 successive days that Contravention Type A continues the penalty amount due will be $5,000.

following 15 successive days that the Contravention Type A continues the penalty amount due will be $15,000.

At this time you are required to provide the ministry with written confirmation of compliance with the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005 and its regulations. Please supply the ministry with the following documents confirming that you have come into compliance with the Act:

- written confirmation that Global TESOL has stopped advertising unapproved vocational programs and has stopped advertising an unregistered Private Career College in Ontario.

Once you have confirmed compliance with the Act, the penalties will cease to accumulate and the ministry will notify you of the total penalty outstanding. Payment of the full amount is due within 30 days of the date of your notification.

If payment is not received within 30 days after the date the notice of contravention was received, the amount will be subject to interest at the current postjudgment interest rate beginning on the 31st day following the date of notice. The current rate can be found at the following address:

www.attorneygeneral.jus.gov.on.ca/english/courts/interestrates.asp.

Review

If you believe that the decision made above is inaccurate you may request a review of this decision by submitting a Request for a Review of a Notice of Contravention form to the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities within 15 days of receipt of the Notice of Contravention.

Schedule A

Act, s. 11 — Global TESOL College Corp., operating as Global TESOL College, on December 21, 2009 published a classified ad in the Toronto Star. The ad headline read: “Teach English Overseas. No Degree Required. TESOL Cert. Job Guar. In-Class/Online Toronto Classes January 27-31”. The ad then stated the web address of the college as www.GlobalTesol.com.

On January 4, 2010 ministry staff examined the website www.GlobalTesol.com. The site describes the following programs:

- Advanced TESOL Certificate Program at a cost of $1195.00 for 120 hours of instruction with a mix of “In Class and Online” instruction.
- Professional TESOL Certificate Program at a cost of $1595 for 240 hours with a mix of “In Class” and “On Line” instruction.
- Advanced TESOL Diploma Program at a cost of $1995 for 360 hours of instruction with a mix of “In Class” and “On Line” instruction.
- Professional TESOL Diploma Program at a cost of $2795 for 600 hours of instruction with a mix of “In Class” and “On Line” instruction.
- TESOL Instructor Diploma at a cost of $2995 for 700 hours of instruction with a mix of “In Class” and “On Line” instruction.
- International TESOL Certificate at a cost of $2195 for 120 hours of “In-Class Instruction”.

Although the main office is located in Edmonton, a registration form allows the registrant to choose the Toronto location for any of the above programs. On January 5, 2010, at approximately 10:30 am ministry staff presented themselves at 101 Spadina, Ste. 209. No one was present and the door was locked. A sign on the door stated that a free seminar would be held on Monday night at 7 pm regarding Teaching English Overseas. Two phone numbers were listed. Signage in the college’s windows also attested to the TESOL course as well as the name of the college. As well, a folded sandwich board in the lobby entrance advertised a program to Teach English Worldwide and gave the aforementioned website.

According to the description provided on the website, all of the preceding programs fit the definition of a vocational program according to the PCCA, 2005. Therefore the school is contravening the PCCA, 2005 by advertising unregistered vocational programs and therefore advertising itself as a Private Career College in the province of Ontario.
