Schedule A

Act, s.38 (10) – Inquiries and examinations, Obstruction ($1,000)

On July 8, 2010, Western Town College was served with a Restraining Order issued by the Superintendent of Private Career Colleges. Among other things, this Order required Western Town College to

...provide written confirmation signed by a person with authority to bind the school... that Western Town College: has stopped advertising an unregistered Private Career College and unapproved vocational programs that require approval...

On July 8, 2010 in response to the Superintendent's Restraining Order, Jason Joo of Western Town College sent a letter to the Superintendent containing the statement: "All advertising of Western Town College as a career college and advertising of all its vocational programs (TESOL/TYC) in Toronto have been stopped."

On September 20, 2010, a Designate attended Western Town College at 300-2040 Yonge St to conduct a field visit. While there, the Designate found several copies of two brochures; one in Japanese and the other in English. The Designate was advised that the content was the same in both documents. The English version was found to promote Western Town College's TESOL and TYC programs. The Designate asked Andy An, Vice President of Western Town College, if these brochures are still in circulation. Andy confirmed that all of Western Town College's agents still have and use these brochures.

Western Town College did not, in fact, come into compliance with the July 8, 2010 Restraining Order as it knowingly left a brochure in circulation that promoted TESOL and TYC programs. By incorrectly affirming that all advertising of Western Town College's vocational programs had stopped, Jason Joo provided the Superintendent with information that he knew to be false and misleading.
